COLLINGSWOOD

NEW JERSEY

"The drums go bang, the cymbals clang, the horns they blaze away." From the time one enters kindergarten school, life is a continuous parade from room to room, grade to grade, and school to school. Finally the parade reaches its greatest tempo in the senior year in high school. This march of school life is planned and directed by the ADMINISTRATION, made interesting by ACTIVITIES, and participated in by the CLASSES. Because of the close association of this theme with the lives of students, the class of 1948 of Collingswood High School has chosen "Collingswood on Parade" as the 1948 yearbook theme.

ALL THINE ATTRIBUTES WE CHERISH

We present a prominent director of the parade of school life, who is an understanding friend and a superior teacher. He has taught in Collingswood Senior High School for twenty-six years. During this time he has taught all branches of mathematics and science, and has been business advisor to the "Knight" Staff for twenty-four years. Because of these attributes of service and friendliness, the 1948 "Knight" Staff gratefully dedicates this book to Mr. Kenneth G. Johnson.

Mr. Kenneth G. Johnson was born in Pottstown, Pennsylvania. He graduated from Pennsylvania State College in 1921 and came to Collingswood the following February. His extra activities include Boy Scout work and a hobby shop in his cellar. For the future he plans retirement and a peaceful little home in the country.

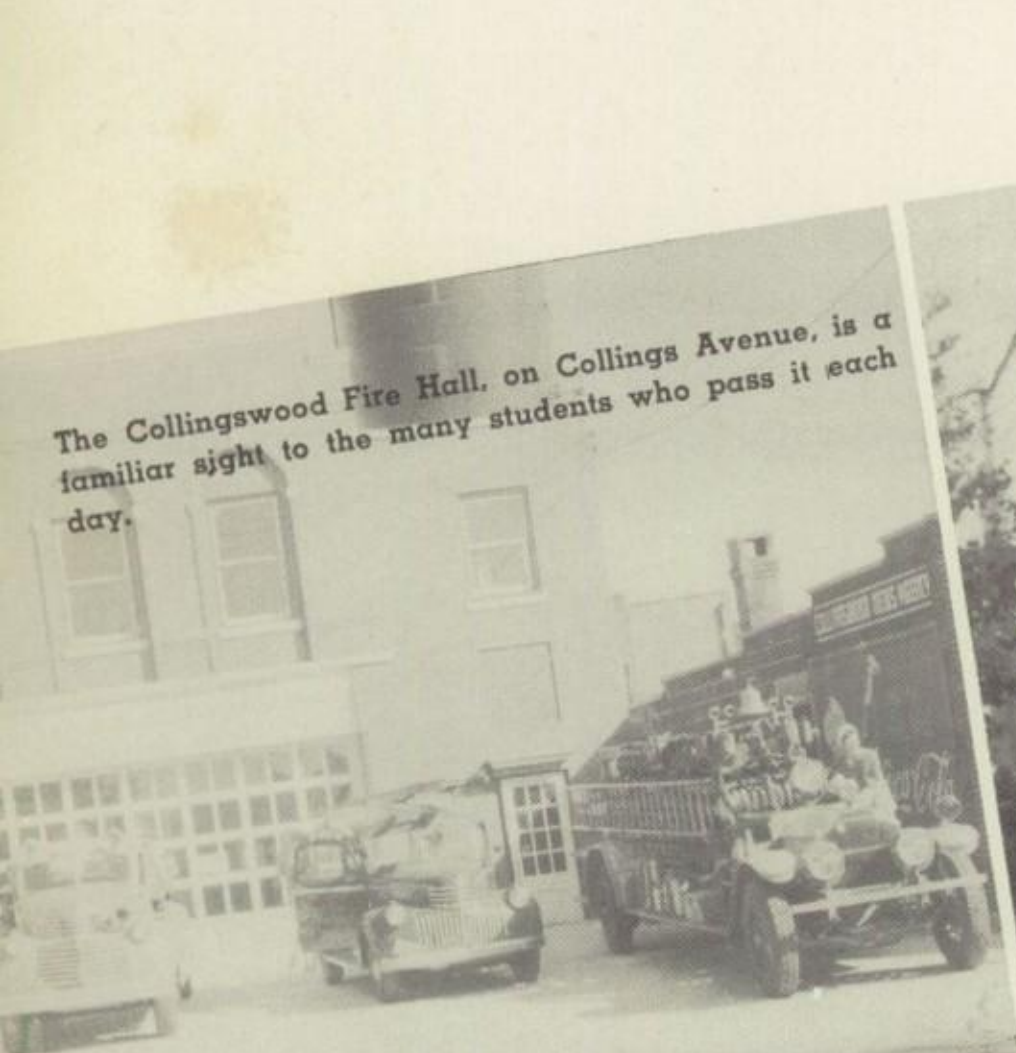

COLLINGSWOOD VIEWS

ON

Collingswood, a beautiful suburban town of 12,685 people, is located in southern New Jersey. Its beautiful landmarks are built on soil that was used by the first settlers at the same time Philadelphia began. Land in Collingswood at that time was owned by Robert Zane and Robert Turner.

From 1888, when Collingswood was first recognized as a borough, up until the present time, the high standards of Collingswood's founders have been maintained.

The Central Airport, on Crescent Boulevard just outside Collingswood, is a familiar landmark to everyone in Collingswood and nearby communities.

COLLINGSWOOD HIGH PASSES BY

Collingswood public education had its beginning in a private institution called the Barton School, which was built in 1789. Early school records tell of a band of earnest men who "Feeling the necessity of giving our children and those entrusted to our care an education which shall enable them to become useful members of society, do form ourselves into an association known by the name of Newton Union School Society." The next step in the development of education in Collingswood was in 1906, when the Edward C. Knight High School officially began with twenty-five pupils. The main part of the building was finished in time for the first class of twelve students to graduate in 1910. This year's class numbers 242.

During 1915 two wings were added to the Senior High School building. In the year of 1924, the Junior High School was completed.

The high school faces beautiful Knight Park and is surrounded by attractive homes of the townspeople. Truly, Collingswood High School is a center of pride and interest in the community.

The lovely campus and nice weather have these Senior students, W. Mülle, M. Matteo, S. White, H. Oaks, A. Sendrow, J. Morris and A. Stone, intrigued.

The administrators plan and lead the parade of school life. Every parade needs competent executives, advisors, helpers; and the school parade is no exception. The following pages introduce the members of the Board of Education and the supervising principal of Collingswood schools; also the principal, vice-principal, faculty, and guidance department of Collingswood High School. This section also pictures the maintenance department, which consists of the janitorial staff and the cafeteria staff.

Administration

THEIR EVERLASTING SPIRIT

BELOW: Mr. Carl Diefenbach, supervising principal of the Collingswood Public Schools.

The able directors of Collingswood public schools are the members of the Collingswood School Board. The group is composed of nine townsmen who give willingly of their time for the education of Collingswood youth. Three members are elected each year for a tenure of three years. The Board has maintained high standards of education in the community.

Serving on the Board are Mr. Walter Marshall, president; Mr. Lester Tomkins, vice-president; Mrs. C. Leslie Bond, Mrs. Harold A. Parker, Mr. B. Newton Barber, Mr. Frank Kreagloh, Mr. Fred Van Istendal, Mr. L. M. Maxwell, and Mr. George Moffett. Mr. H. M.

To the Class of 1948:

Someone has invented a formula for the standard of living in a democratic society which reads $R \times E$

— I — W = SL. The "R" represents our natural resources, the "E" education, the "P" population, the "I" indulgences, the "W" war, and the "SL" standard of living. The amount of "E" you have attained as a class and as an individual will improve your "SL" if you will go easy on the "I" and try to prevent "W."

Best wishes for your continued success,
CARL M. DIEFENBACH,
Supervising Principal.

Restrict has served a long and successful term as District Clerk. Mrs. Katherine Goulburn is Mr. Restrict's secretary. Dr. George Rapp is Medical Inspector.

Administrators who work directly with the school and pupils are Mr. Carl M. Diefenbach, supervising principal; Mr. Percy Eichelberger, high school principal; and Mr. Richard Currier, vice-principal.

UPHOLDS THE SCHOOL

To the Class of 1948, Congratulations.

You are being graduated at a time when the national problem is "How to Improve the World?"

Consider two thoughts: Every man can improve the world. He can improve himself.

Because you have graduated from high school, you are better equipped for self-improvement. Do not feel that your effort toward world improvement could be so small as to appear useless. A better individual and citizen is the result of continuous self-improvement.

With this thought, "Farewell, and God's speed!"
P. S. EICHELBERGER.

To the Class of 1948:

This is a time of gladness. Twelve years of work will be rewarded by a diploma. This is also a time of sadness because good friends must part. This is a time for facing many challenges which the future will offer.

Best wishes for your success and happiness.

R. L. CURRIER.

H. Letts, Jr., guidance director, heads this committee. He is capably assisted by Miss Ruth E. Griffiths, Miss Margaret Roberts, and Miss Eunice Mellinger.

Sixty-three counts are necessary for graduation from Collingswood High and a minimum of four subjects plus physical education are required each year. Six curricula are offered to the students: Classical, Technical, General, Manual Arts, General Business, and Secretarial. The Classical and Technical courses are designed for students preparing for college. The General course is designed for students desiring a variety of subjects. The commercial courses, General Business and Secretarial, are business preparatory courses. The Manual Arts course is designed for those boys expecting to take up some mechanical type of occupation.

Each student is urged to participate in at least one of the many interesting and helpful extra-curricular activities available at Collingswood High. The school offers appropriate educational opportunities to all its students, so that they may be happy and worthwhile citizens of their community.

NOTRE DAME

Just as any parade must have a drum majorette to lead, so must every school have a guiding factor. Collingswood High School is proud of the guidance department, this year expanded in staff as well as work.

The four areas of work under the heading of "Guidance" are classified as individual counselling, vocational guidance, college selections and scholarships, and job placement.

Mr. George H. Letts, Jr., is head of the department. His work is giving students advice on their trying problems and chosen fields of work. For the sophomore class, he conducts weekly orientation classes which help the pupil with scholastic and personal problems.

Miss Ruth E. Griffiths, counsellor for the senior girls, advises them on all phases of social and business life. Miss Margaret Roberts has charge of the junior and sophomore girls.

Miss Eunice Mellinger, as in former years, is again offering guidance to those interested in college, supervising their training for college and entrance examinations, and assisting pupils in making application for scholarships.

The placement of students in after-school and Saturday work, as well as post-graduate work, is capably handled by Mr. Charles McCaslin and Miss Gladys Hillman.

RELIABLE MANAGERS AND WORKERS

The maintenance department is always "on the job" to make school life more pleasant. The shiny windows and neat desks give the school a bright appearance. Delicious, inexpensive meals served by the ladies of the cafeteria satisfy the students' appetites.

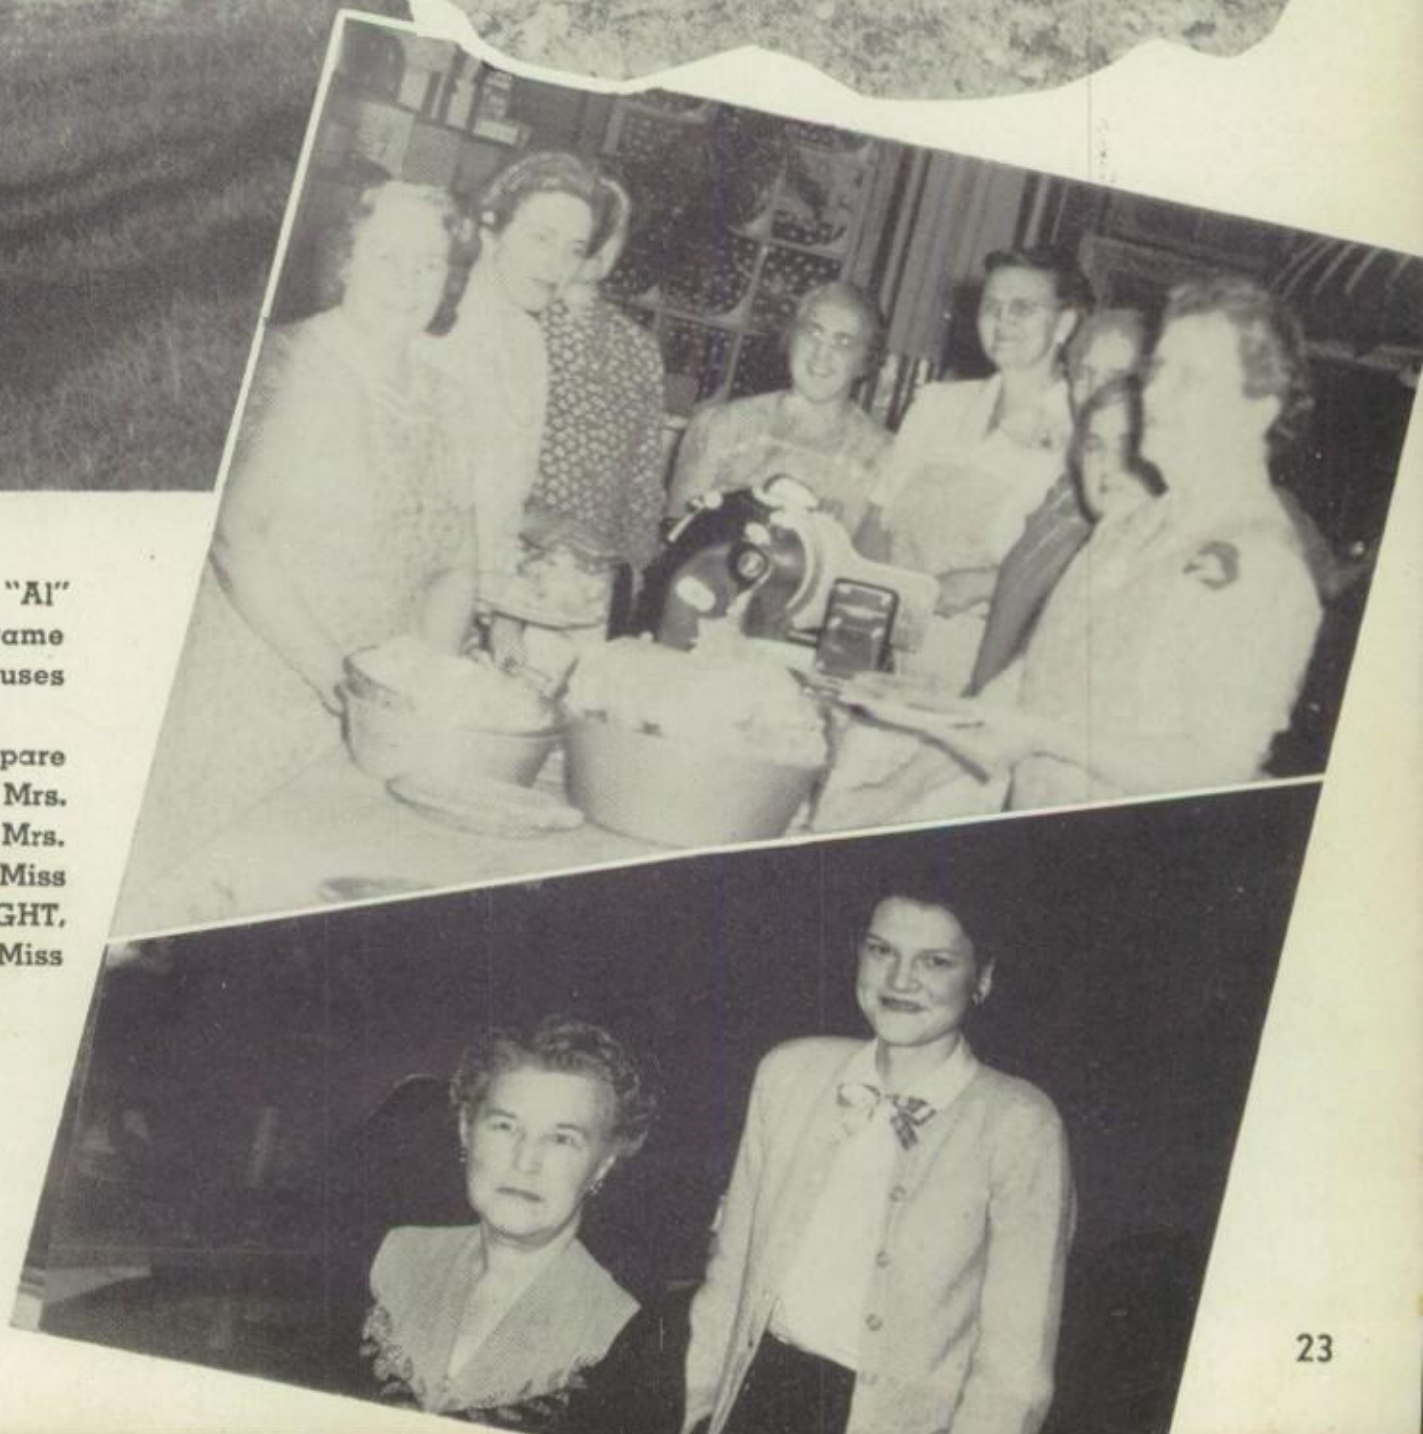

Mrs. Edna Krebs manages the cafeteria staff and serves the best of foods. Those who assist are Miss Emma Ballinger, Mrs. Mabel Clasby, Mrs. Luella Clifford, Mrs. Marie Gooch, Mrs. Ethel Reeves, Mrs. Sara Taylor and Mrs. Elizabeth Townsend. Mrs. David E. Black serves as cashier.

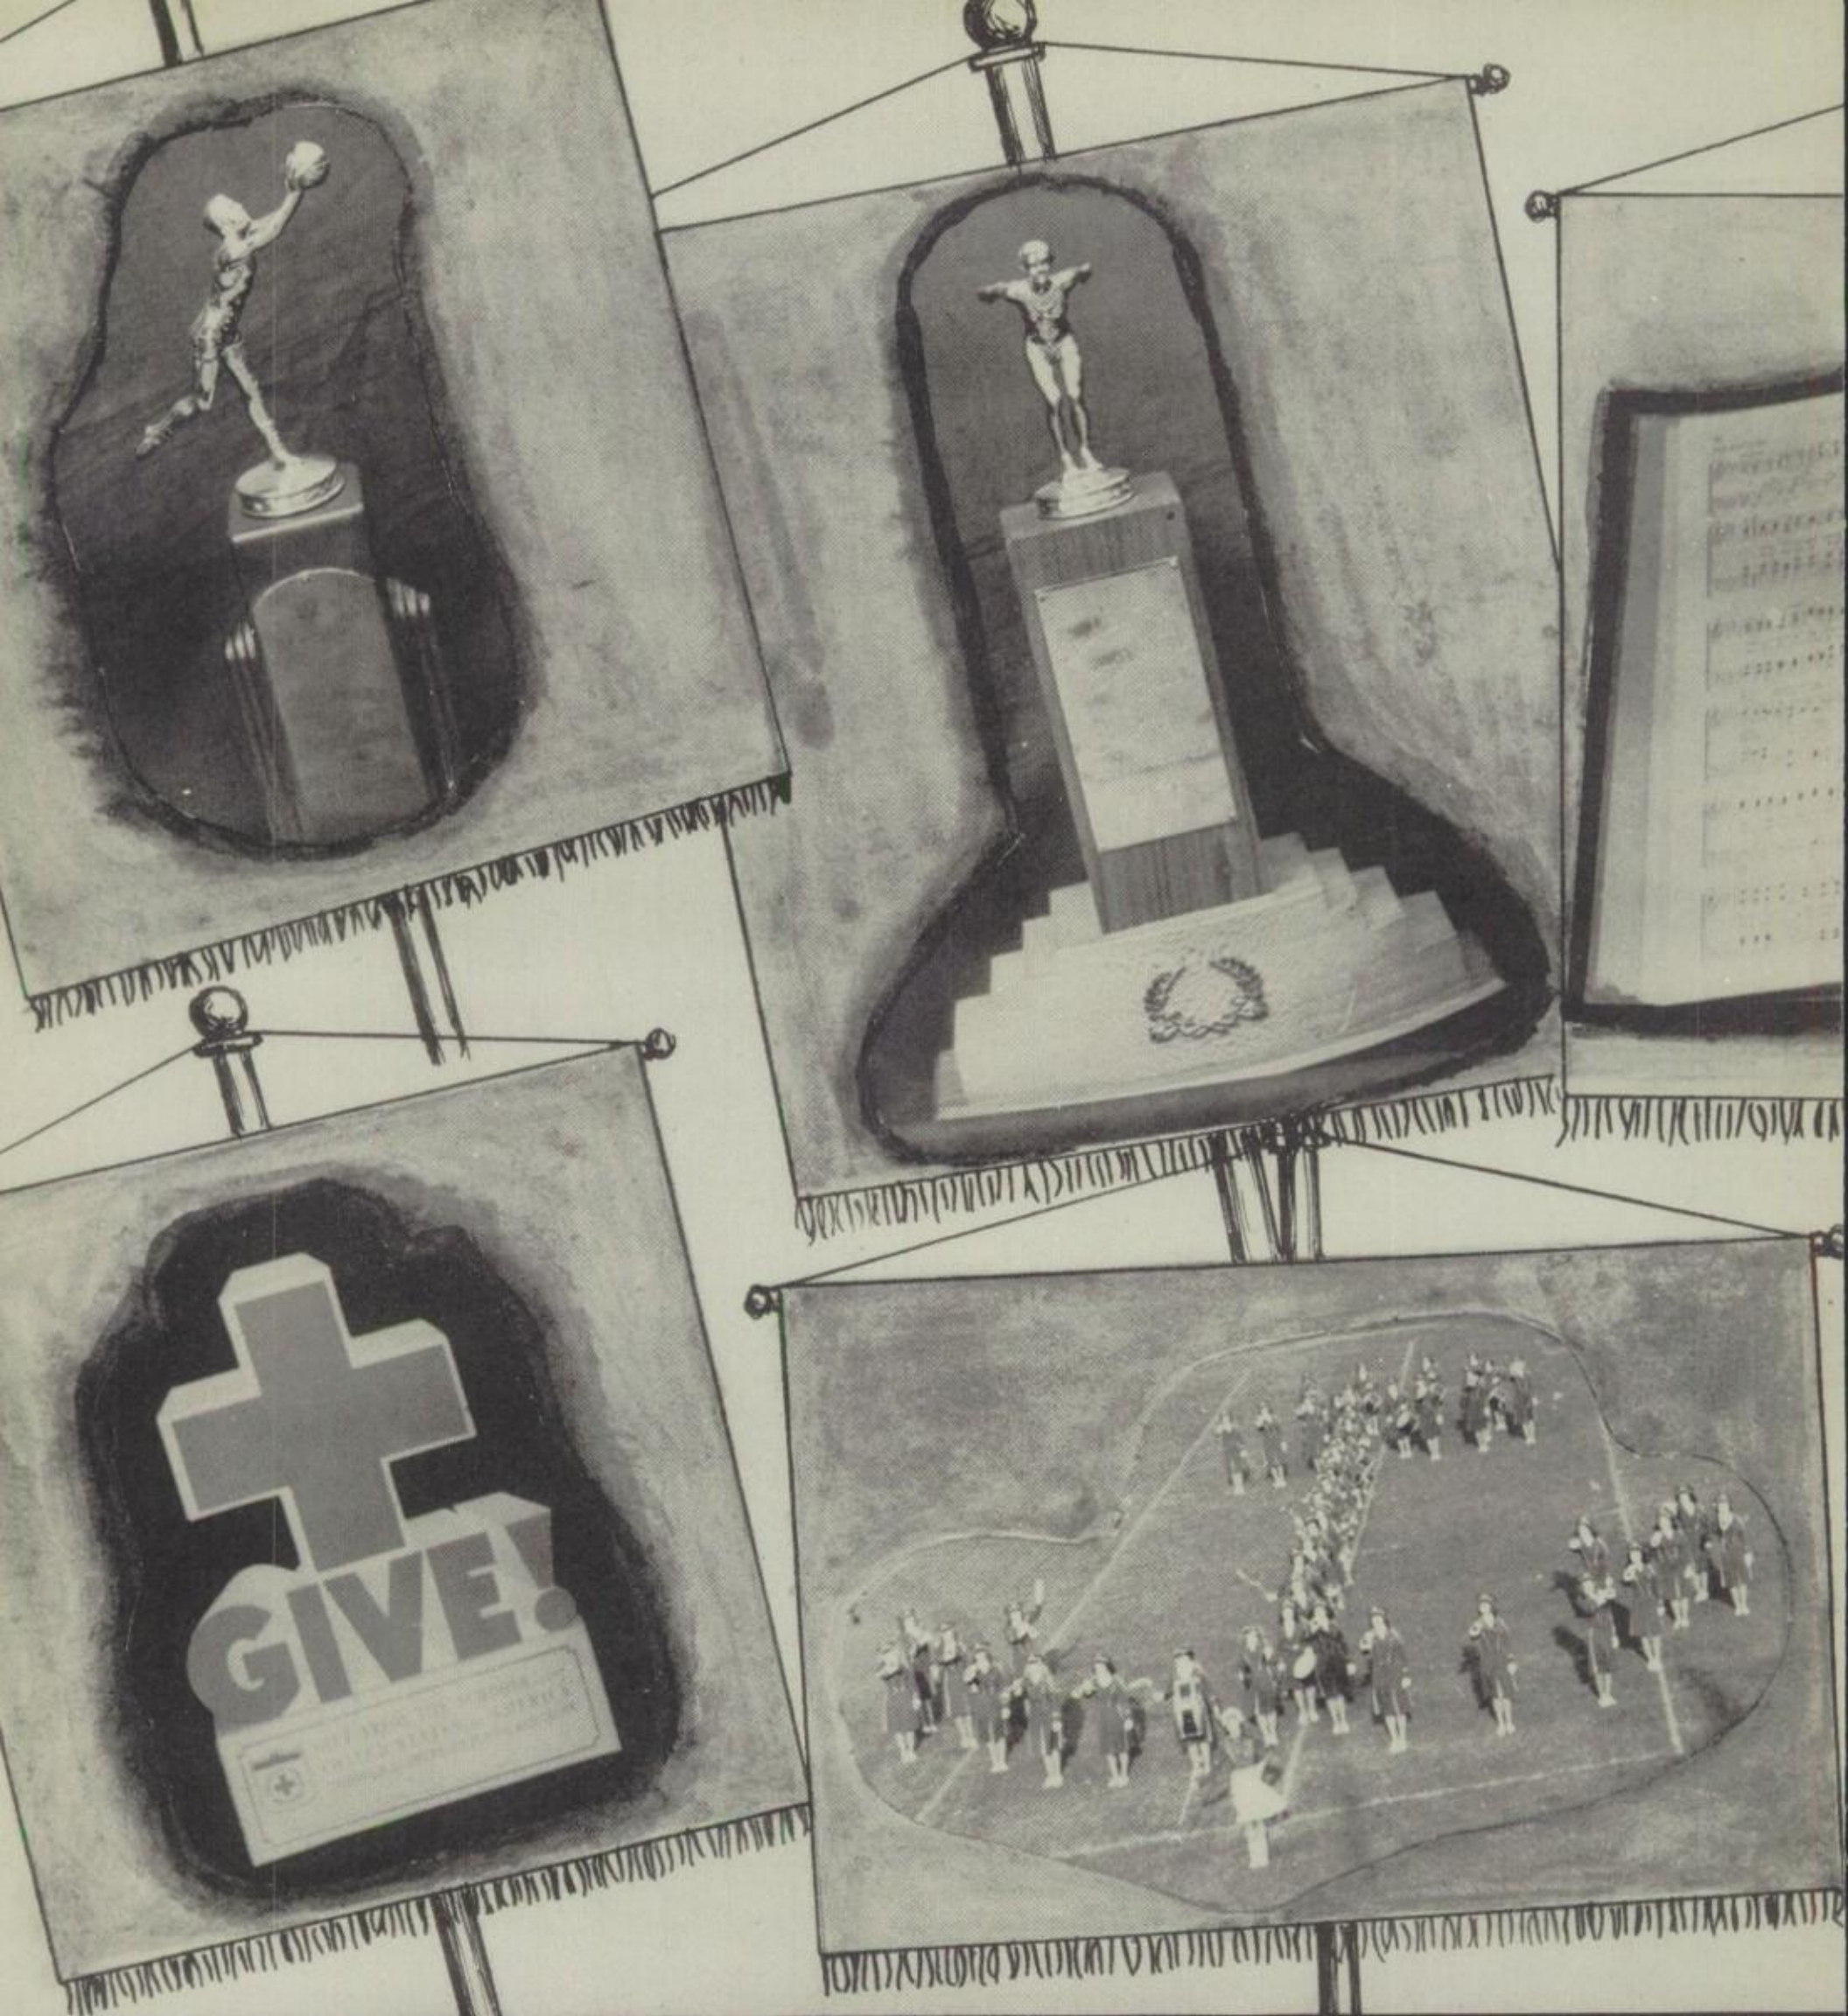

Albert Hoehling, chief of the janitorial staff, is assisted by John Barrett, Charles Landensberger, Harry Muckley, George Saltford, Martin Smith and Joseph Williams.

The parade of school life is made interesting by activities. At Collingswood High School these are many and varied. There is an activity to suit the interest of every student. The following pages cover accurately and thoroughly all the activities participated in by Collingswood students. This is carried out by photographs and articles which give definite information about PUBLICATIONS, MUSIC GROUPS, SERVICE CLUBS, HONOR SOCIETIES, STUDENT CABINET, DRAMATICS, SOCIAL FUNCTIONS and SPORTS.

Activities

"MERRY MOILERS MAKE THE KNIGHT"

According to Mr. Webster, "moilers" are "hard workers." In Collingswood High School, "The Merry Moilers" are those students who devote their time and talent to preparing the year book, "The Knight."

Since its first publication in 1912 "The Knight" has been a project of the senior class. This year there are twenty-nine seniors on the staff. Editor-in-Chief for the 1948 book is Ann Pultz.

The theme for this year's book, "A Knight on Parade," was suggested by Ruth Dambly, of the Art Staff. The Literary Staff has attempted to write headlines and articles suitable to the theme, and the Art Staff has endeavored to plan appropriate page arrangements and sketches.

The Literary Staff, directed by Miss Flora Hooper, attends to the writing and editing of the book. Howard Casey is Literary Editor. Other members of the staff are Audrey Logan, Adelaide Stone, Constance Holcombe, Ruth Schust, Jacqueline Gehring, Mary Jane Friel, Shirlee Bell, and Rosemary Beaver.

The Art Staff draws the dividers and other art work seen throughout the book. The Art advisor is Miss Edna B. Hyde. The Art Editor is Virginia Tilton. Other staff members are Ruth Dambly, Sue Ann Bond, Barbara Seltzer, Doris Musselman, Nancy Elser, and Warren Mulle.

The Business Staff, guided by Mr. Kenneth G. Johnson, attends to the financial duties. They plan and direct the sale of books, which takes place after the Christmas holidays. Members of the staff are Everett Ellis, who is Business Manager; Jean Horst, Nellie Steinhoff, Edith Hlubb, Janet Morris, Elizabeth Moyer, Joy Mohrfeld, Edith Kelley and Joan Creely. Arnold Weber is Photographic Editor. The photographers are John Stratton and William Mount.

The publication endeavors to present a record of the scholastic and extra-curricular activities. The staff has done its best to make the 1948 "Knight" the best year book possible.

COLOSSAL COLUMNISTS OF

The "Colls High News" has played an important part in the parade of events at Collingswood High for a number of years. The arrival of the paper is eagerly anticipated by the student body. It is distributed every other Friday morning by the members of the business staff.

"The News" was founded October 4, 1929, and is a member of the International Quill and Scroll, National Scholastic Press Association and Columbia Press Association.

There are three faculty advisers for "The News." Mr. J. Arthur Ferner is literary adviser and also gives a course in Journalism to the Sophomores interested in joining the staff. Mr. Fred Coleman is advertising adviser and Mrs. Margaret S. Tutem is financial adviser.

Katherine White is this year's Editor-in-Chief. Regina Maas is News Editor, Flora Mae Ferner is Feature Page Editor and Gerald Eichelberger is Sports Editor. Doris Derr is Business Manager and Bernice Wendell is Head Typist. The rest of the staff is made up of nineteen reporters, twelve advertising solicitors and twenty-seven typists.

RELIABLE REPRESENTATIVES OF CLASSES

The Student Cabinet of Collingswood High School serves as a clearing house for student opinion. The meetings are open discussions led by the president. Problems of the school are discussed and improvements suggested.

This year the Cabinet is preparing a Constitution and By-Laws for the school. A committee appointed by the president has been studying the Constitutions of other schools in order to find ideas that might be embodied in their own.

All three classes and all organizations directly connected with the high school are represented in the Cabinet. The members are: Senior Class, Warren Mulle, Michael Moffa; Junior Class, Theodore Narleski, Robert Purbeck; Sophomore Class, Edwin Smith, Jean Campbell; Office Administration, Jean Di Napoli, Julia Taylor; Library Club, Marilyn Fisher, Adelaide Stone; Assembly Club, Thomas Williams, Helen Puro; Hall Guards, Raymond Narleski, Barbara Rapp; Girls' Cafeteria Club, Flora Mae Ferner; Boys' Cafeteria Club, Raymond Narleski.

The president of the senior class automatically becomes the Cabinet President. It is his duty to preside at the meetings, appoint committees, attend conventions of Student Cabinet representatives, and, when necessary, represent Collingswood High School at other schools. This year Warren Mulle is president of the Cabinet, Thomas Williams is vice-president, Adelaide Stone is secretary and Michael Moffa is treasurer. Vice-principal Richard L. Currier is adviser to the Cabinet.

The Cabinet sponsored two dances during the year. The first was held on January 31, and the second on May 15.

THE PROCESSION OF THE PERFORMING

The Combined Glee Clubs and the Choir of Collingswood High School, under the direction of Miss Bess A. Huey, have built for themselves an enviable reputation.

There are 250 members in the Combined Glee Clubs and 83 members in the Choir. An inspiring Candlelight Service was presented twice on December 18th; once in the afternoon, for the benefit of the students; and once at night, for the benefit of the citizens of Collingswood. Gerald Eichelberger was the narrator in the impressive service which consisted of the Christmas Story told in song and verse.

In the month of May the Combined Glee Clubs and Choir presented the annual Spring Concert. This program was given only at night.

It has been the tradition of Collingswood High School to have the Choir sing at Commencement exercises. This singing increases the beauty of the graduation ceremonies.

The various ensembles performed at the Candlelight service and the Spring Concert.

A RAY OF HOPE

To many, the American Junior Red Cross Club is ray of hope. Among its many activities, helping the needy is the most important. Afghans, candy bars, comic books, crossword puzzles, cartoon scrapbooks, games and Christmas cards are sent to Tilton General Hospital and the Lyons Hospital. The Jr. Red Cross also aids many organizations in their drives. One outstanding achievement for this year was the response of the Jr. Red Cross to a personal request from the Mosley family of Asher, Kentucky for articles of clothing. For their annual Membership Fund, the Jr. Red Cross received a very gratifying sum.

An honor bestowed upon the school was the election of Constance Holcombe as president of the Camden County Secondary Council of the Jr. Red Cross.

The Junior Red Cross Club is under the supervision of Mrs. Ruth Grubb and her assistant Miss Virginia Garrity. Officers of the club are President, Helen Puro; First Vice President, Joan Glynn; Second Vice President, Sally Schwartz; Recording Secretary,

DREAMLAND DANCES

In Collingswood High dancing is rated "tops" by the "debs" and their "dates". This year's dances were sponsored by Miss Esther A. Snoke for the senior class, Mr. Charles McCaslin for the juniors, and Miss Marion I. Merwin for the sophomores. A special dance committee assisted Miss H. Gladys Hillman with dances given by the P. T. A. During the football season and the Christmas holidays the Alumni Association and the P. T. A. held dances. Also, during the holidays, the Senior class gave a Christmas Formal. The Sophomore class added color to the years' events by having a "Winter Wonderland" on December 13.

KNOWLEDGE COMES BUT WISDOM LINGERS

"Nothing is impossible to a willing heart" is a quotation well suited to the National Honor Society. The requirements are good character coming from clean living, right thinking and noble ideals; scholarship; service, which means cooperation and willingness to work for and with others through various school activities. The officers, under the direction of Mr. H. K. Reiss Holston, are president, Thomas Williams; vice president, Katherine White; secretary, Helen Puro; and treasurer, Warren Mülle. Collingswood nominees are chosen from the Junior and Senior classes.

Appearing as prominent leaders of the journalistic parade are the members of the "Quill and Scroll", an honorary society for high school journalists. The aim of the society is to encourage and reward individual achievement in journalism. The local chapter in Collingswood was started in 1931. Members are chosen by the "Knight" staff sponsors, Miss Edna B. Hyde, Miss Flora Hooper and Mr. Kenneth G. Johnson; and the "Colls High News" sponsors, Mrs. Margaret S. Tutem, Mr. J. Arthur Ferner, and Mr. Fred Coleman.

IN THE UPPER PICTURE are the newly elected members of the National Honor Society. FIRST ROW: M. Buckley, J. Glynn, W. Barth, B. R. Farnath, R. Schust, R. Dambly, J. Dioszegi, F. Nightengale, M. AMBITIOUS ACTORS

On the nights of December 5th and 6th, The Senior Class of Collingswood High School presented "The Life of the Party" by Marijane and Joseph Hayes, to the citizens of Collingswood. The play was given under the capable direction of Miss Mary A. McManimen. It is a comedy, warm and funny, brisk and tender, which teaches the lesson of life's adjustments.

The plot shows that the solution to many family problems lies in facing the problem squarely, with each member working for the common good.

Miss McManimen and her students worked tirelessly to give a performance which brought credit to the school.

The Student Director was Barbara Barris. The stage Manager was William Roeger.

In a scene from "The Life of the Party", Charles Collier (Robert Chard) says to Officer Lipscomb (Howard Oaks), "Look here, Officer, you can't arrest me! My Father—" But he can't get past the policeman. In the background, "Snazzy" Mitchell (Edward Bowman) administers first aid to Mr. Hughes (Robert Hocknell). On the steps are "Dottie" Kixmiller (Floramae Ferner), Sally Frazier (Janet Morris) and Hope Shuttleworth (Joan Creely).

WE HAVE DONE OUR BIT FOR OLD COLLS HIGH

All important in the passing parade of the school, are the various Service Clubs, which perform numerous services that improve Collingswood High School. Included in the Service Clubs are the Hall Guard Club, the Cafeteria Club, the Administration Club, the Library Club, the Visual Education Club and Assembly Club.

The Hall Guards are primarily for taking care of the corridors when school is in session. Because of one suggestion by the Hall Guards, all the lockers in school have combination locks. The Hall Guards are under the supervision of Mr. Richard Currier, vice principal of the school.

This year's officers of the Hall Guard Club are: President, Raymond Narleski; Vice President, Barbara Rapp; and Secretary, Ruth Gilbert.

The Girls' and Boys' Cafeteria Clubs are

THE PASSING PARADE

Audubon stopped on the one foot line, Phillipsburg held three times on the five yard line, Camden held two yards from victory! Such is the story of the fighting "Colls" of '47.

Skeets Irvine, the dean of South Jersey coaches, had a gloomy outlook for 1947: only two varsity lettermen returning. Such an outlook has made more than one coach shake in his boots. But the team improved week after week and developed into one of the finest defensive teams in South Jersey.

The fans voiced favorable opinion by turning out in great droves week after week to cheer for their team. Head cheerleaders Joan Creely and "Dick" Coigne, assisted by cheerleaders Barbara Rapp, Barbara Ferguson, Joan McClaskey, Elaine Percival, "Dick" Cooling, "Bob" Edwards, "Al" Paolini, and "Jack" Hasson, performed their duties with much gusto as they led the students in cheering on that "Big Blue Team".

OF THE PIGSKIN POTENTATES

"Colls"—13

Gloucester—0

Opening day and a capacity crowd saw Collingswood's untried "gridiron gladiators" roll over Gloucester by a 13-0 count.

A "Ray" Narleski pass to Gordon Leslie covered 18 yards and gave the "Colls" their first score. Again in the second period it was a Narleski pass which scored for the "Colls". This time junior end Sherwood Joy, was on the receiving end. Narleski's conversion split the uprights and the "Colls" led 13-0. A scoreless fourth period followed, and the final score was 13-0.

"Colls"—6

W. W. H. S.—8

Woodrow Wilson defeated Collingswood for the first time in 8 years, in 1947. A scrappy and determined Wilson team capitalized on two fumbles by the "Colls" to run up an eight point lead at half-time. Gordon Leslie scored on a pass from "Ray" Narleski to start off the second half. However, the Wilson defense soon stiffened and the "Colls" were held at bay for the remaining quarter.

"Colls"—6

Vineland—7

Vineland was installed as a fourteen point favorite over the "Colls." True to form, the "Poultry Clan" pushed over the first score. Then the unbelievable happened. The "Colls" dug in and held Vineland at bay for the half. Then in the second period the "Colls" marched seventy yards down field with Leslie finally going over for the score. "Ray" Narleski's conversion attempt went wide and Vineland led 7-6. The "Colls" outfought Vineland the rest of the way, but couldn't get the ball across the last white stripe.

"Colls"—14 Atlantic City High School—12

The following week Collingswood came roaring back to defeat the highly touted "Taffies" 14-12. "Dick" Murphy scored both "T.D.'s" for the "Colls", on passes of 8 and 16 yards from "Ray" Narleski. "Ray" converted on both occasions.

"Colls"—12 Bridgeton—35

Collingswood traveled down "Cumberland County Way" to meet the powerful "Bulldogs" from Bridgeton. It was Bridgeton's game from the opening kickoff and they dominated play until the fourth period. Late in the fourth period the "Panthers" paced by "Teddy" Narleski and the sophomore sensation, "Larry" Schuman, drove down field for two quick "T.D.'s" Narleski scored first and then Schuman bulled over from the one foot line. "Ray" Narleski's conversion attempts went wide.

"Colls"—7 Camden—7

Defeated soundly by Bridgeton, the "Colls" came back and held their traditional rival, Camden, to a tie. Collingswood scored first as "Ray" Narleski pitched a beautiful touchdown pass to Gordon Leslie. "Ray" followed up with a perfect placement.

Camden came roaring back to knot the count. This ended the scoring for the afternoon and brought the fighting "Colls" line to the foreground. Again and again the low charging forward wall of Joy, Collings, Bozarth, Glann, Moffa, Drummond and Vignola turned back the Camden team.

"Colls"—6 Phillipsburg—8

Collingswood travelled upstate to meet Phillipsburg. The "Panthers" surprised everyone but themselves as they played one of their best games. The first half was a seesaw battle with Phillipsburg getting several breaks but lacking the stuff to push the ball over. It was a defensive half for the "Colls". Then in the second half, Collingswood began to move and Dominick Vignola finally took the ball across on a pass from "Teddy" Narleski. The breaks then went against the "Colls" and Phillipsburg scored first on a safety and then in the final minutes pushed over the winning T.D.

"Colls"—6

Haddonfield—13

Haddonfield defeated the "Colls" by the tune of 13-6. Collingswood scored first as Gordon Leslie scored from 18 yds. out. Haddonfield then pushed over two quick T. D.'s to insure victory.

Audubon—0

An inspired Collingswood team fought the Group III Champs, Audubon, to a scoreless tie. The Collingswood line dominated play for the full 48 minutes. The entire first team line along with "Mike" Matteo, "Clem" Bender, "Jim" Hankins and "Eddie" Vekony all played the game of their lives in humbling the "Green Wave".

Woodbury—12

The Panthers finally came to life in the last game of the season. They ran rampant over the "Thundering Herd" of Woodbury 26-12. Gordon Leslie opened the scoring for the "Colls". Then came the deluge in which "Teddy" Narleski scored twice on a run of 40 and a plunge of 2 yards. "Dom" Vignola also scored on a "Ray" Narleski pass. "Ray" Narleski converted successfully on two of the four occasions.

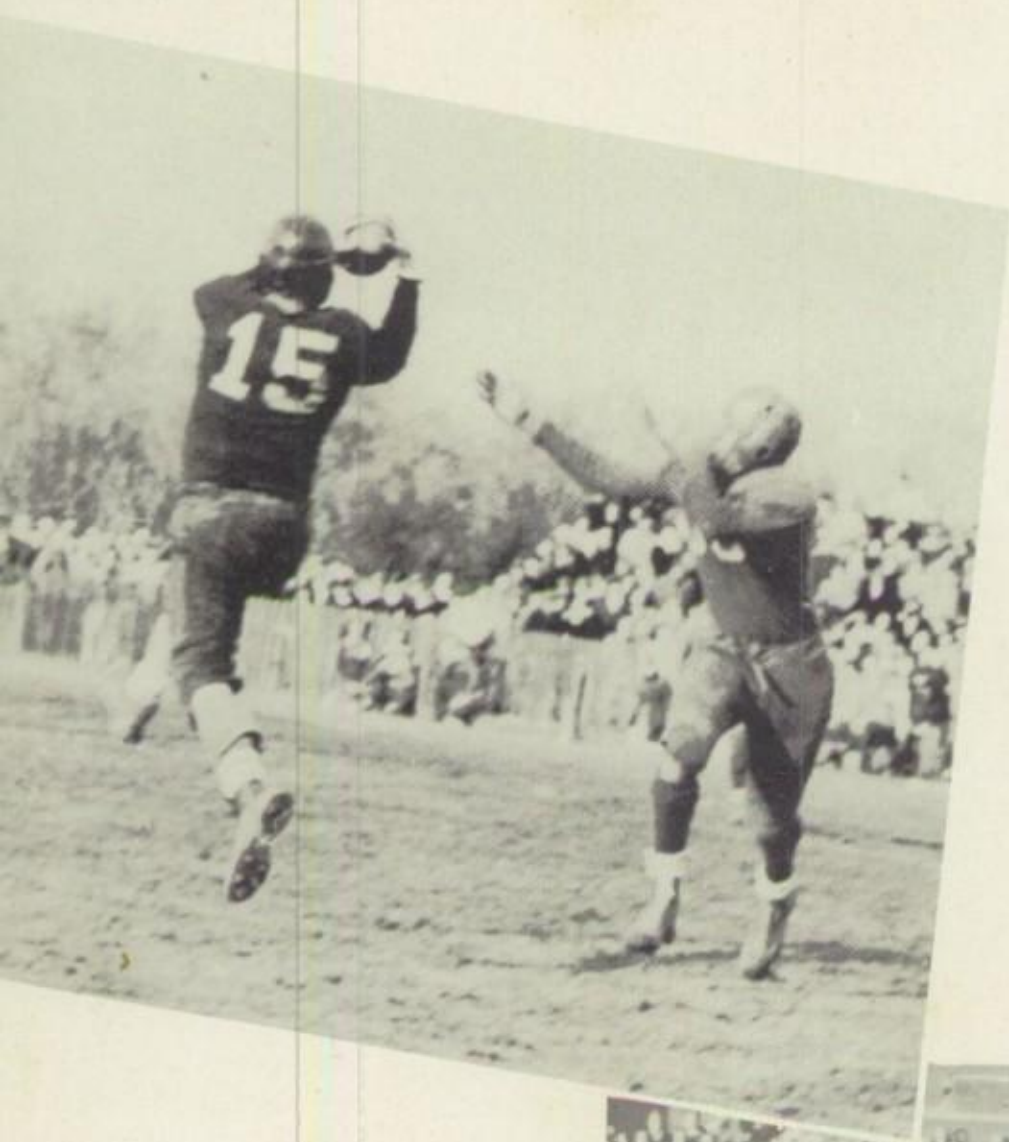

The "Colls" played as a team in '48; therefore no one player was outstanding. Gordon Leslie's head on tackles and twisting runs gave him the honored position of All-South Jersey half-back. Co-Captain "Mike" Moffa was also selected on the third All-South Jersey Team. For his brilliant defensive play hard hitting "Mike" Matteo was awarded the "Jack Gove" award as the outstanding substitute lineman of the year. Also outstanding for the "Colls" were: "Dom" Vignola and Sherwood Joy, glue fingered ends; "Greg" Drummond, "Lefty" Collings, and "Clem" Bender, hard hitting tackles; "Biffer" Bozarth, "Bill" Carman and "Jim" Hankins, fast moving guards; "Stu" Glann and "Eddie" Vekony, brilliant snapperhocks; "Larry" Schuman, "Ray" and "Teddy" Narleski, "Ben" Addiego, and "Don" De Martin, clever and shifty backs.

The team started the season with a "bang" by defeating Lower Regional 6 to 0. They then defeated Gloucester 4 to 3, lost to Bridgeton 0 to 2, defeated Moorestown Friends 1 to 0, lost to Gloucester 1 to 2, defeated Bridgeton 5 to 1, defeated Audubon 9 to 0, tied Woodbury 0 to 0, defeated Paulsboro 4 to 1, and lost to the Alumni 1 to 2.

In this game Marion Johnson made three goals while "Renee" Ford accounted for both of the others. This was one of the games that helped the team win second place in the South Jersey League.

The Team, captained by "Ruthie" Gilbert, received 13 varsity letters. Julia Taylor was senior manager. She was assisted by Jean Wilson and Barbara Potter, juniors.

Under the efficient training of their new coach, Miss Alice Dougherty, and her assistant Mrs. Shirley Eisenhart, the "Golden Lasses of the Court" blazed a brilliant trail of victories this season.

The first game of the season showed the spirit of the team when they came up with a victory 32-30 over Woodbury. The most thrilling game of the season was the victory over Gloucester, 30-26 after the previous loss. The girls closed the season with second place in the West Jersey Girls' Basketball League.

This season the basketball team waited until after the first five games had been played before they chose their captain. The result was that they had as very capable co-captains "Dot" Shaw and Ann Pultz. Both girls are seniors.

The high scorer for this season was "Betty" Cheeseman, a junior who had a total of 183 points to her credit. Ann Pultz came second with 109 points.

FEARLESS FELLOWS

Swish—Count up two more points. Basketball is here.

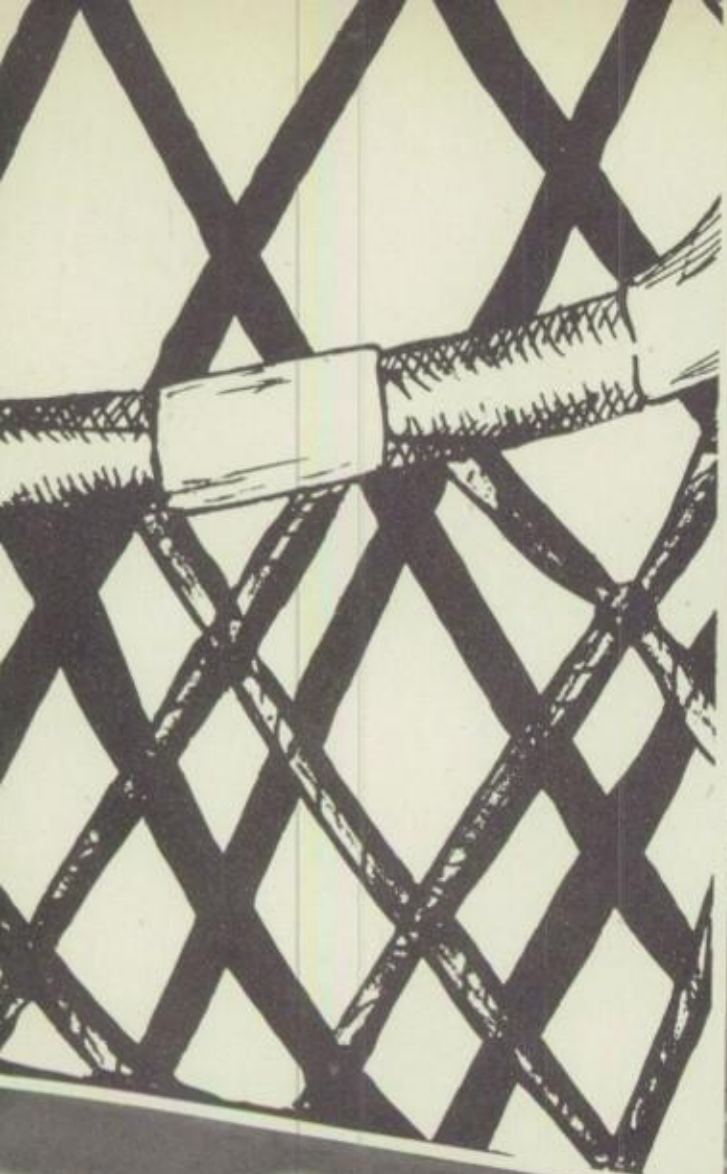

The "Marksmen" got off to a slow start this year, losing their first five games of the season. Showing plenty of "spunk," they came marching back, under Mr. "Ben" Mark's excellent coaching, obtaining a close victory of 44-41 over Bridgeton. The "Colls" beat them again at Bridgeton's court to the tune of 46-41. One of the high points of the season was the victory over Haddonfield 29-27.

The team elected as co-captain, two versatile players, "Dom" Vignola, a senior, and "Bill" Dare, a junior.

The high scorer of the season was "Stan" Nodder, a junior with 159 points to his credit. "Bill" Dare placed second with 109 points, and in third place was Gordon Leslie, with 95 points.

The basketball team participated in the New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association Tournament this year.

THE COLLS GO SWINGING ALONG

The 1947 Edition of Collingswood High School's hard hitting baseball team went swinging along to second place in the South Jersey Group IV League. The "Colls" defeated Camden, Vineland, Woodrow Wilson, Bridgeton, and Trenton in league competition. The "Colls" suffered their only league loss at the hands of Trenton. This loss threw both teams into a tie for the league lead. In the resulting playoff Trenton defeated the "Colls", 6-4 in a thrilling fourteen inning contest.

For his outstanding team play James Weir was awarded the coveted John Engine Award. Other outstanding performers for the 1947 "Colls" were: "Ray" Narleski whose fine pitching paced the "Colls" in their drive for the championship; and "Teddy" Narleski and Gordon Leslie hard hitting infielders.

The outlook for 1948 is bright, although only four lettermen return from last year's squad. Key men in the 1948 picture are lettermen "Teddy" Narleski, Gordon Leslie, "Bob" Williams, and "Tom" Glann. Other prospects who showed promise on the Junior Varsity of last season are: S. Joy, N. Baylie, W. Ardnt, J. Tavani, E. Schaaf, D. Van Netta, A. Augustine, J. Litzinger, A. Thilo, B. Purbeck, D. DeMartin, F. Kelley, R. Walters, E. Schankins, L. Collings and Mike Matteo.

AT THE RIGHT Drew "Reds" Wilson, hard hitting varsity catcher, is seen pulling into third base after sending a screaming hit into his favorite spot, the deep left field corner.

AT THE LEFT "Ray" Narleski, Collingswood's Ace righthander rounds third and heads for home with another run for the "Colls". Although Narleski's pitching is his real claim to fame, he possesses an excellent batting eye.

MERRY MERMAIDS

The girls' swimming team of 1947 finished the season with a total of 134 points, one win, and four losses. However, the girls won against Audubon by a score of 33 to 26, Barbara Rapp winning the 20 yard crawl for the "Colls" and Rema Reyes taking diving honors. On the return meet with Audubon the girls lost by a score of 30 to 28, but Dorothy Hesser and Gladys Sharp took first place in two events. The greatest loss was against Little Flower, but the girls shone in their meets with Merchantville.

Competitive swimming was abandoned this year; instead, the girls have swimming classes on Thursday at the Y.W.C.A. in Camden. The girls are trying to pass certain tests. If they attend three-fourths of all classes, each girl will receive the numerals "48". Genevieve Tiedeken, a junior, is assisting Mrs. Shirley Eisenhardt, C. H. S. instructor, in teaching the girls. Each "Mermaid" thoroughly enjoys her swimming classes.

BLUE AND GOLD "SLUGGERS"

Collingswood's "sluggers" are looking forward to a successful year of softball under the leadership of Coach Alice Dougherty. Miss Aida D'Orazio will assist her.

Last year many intramural games were played. There were also three games with other high schools. Tuckerton 13, "Colls" 36; Moorestown Friends 15, "Colls" 15; Palmyra 11, "Colls" 10.

There were six intramural teams captained by P. Ratchford, R. Ford, J. Seward, F. Marinella, J. Huber, and B. Cheesman. Flora Marinella's team won the championship and was composed of the following members: G. Cain, D. Murphy, M. Reichley, D. DiAntonio, D. Walston, P. Gallimore, P. Gallimore, P. Ratchford, D. King, and F. Marinella.

Miss Dougherty is planning to start the softball season this year with intramural games. Then the outstanding players will have a chance to try out for the team to represent the school in competition with other teams.

So far, there are three games planned with other schools. One game will be played with Palmyra High School at home on April 20th. There are also two games arranged with Haddonfield High School.

1948 saw the "mermen" of Collingswood High School stroke to fifth place in the Camden County Suburban Swimming League. The team defeated Haddon Heights for their only league win. Losses came at the hands of Camden County Vocational School, Merchantville, Moorestown, and Haddonfield. All the meets were close, with many races being lost by fractions of an inch.

In the Open Meet the "Colls" finished a surprising fourth. Allan Fleming, who shone brilliantly for the "Colls" all season long and was high point man of the squad, turned in a sensational performance at the Open Meet and copped the gold medal for top diving honors.

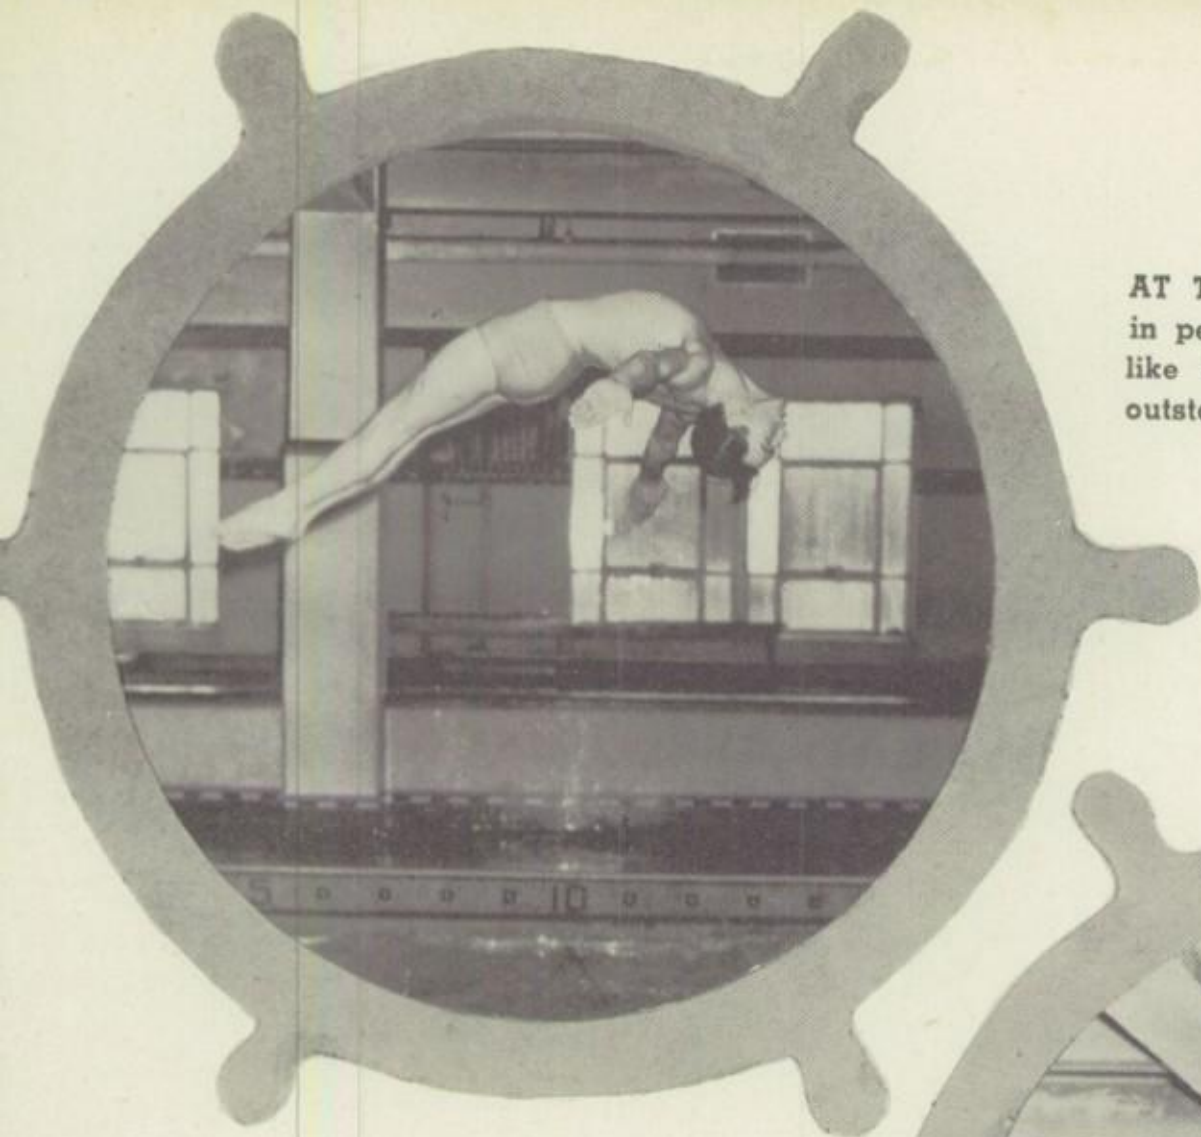

Other outstanding performers on this year's squad were: Howard Cutler—40 yard freestyle; Bill Carman—100 yard breaststroke; Bob Schultz—100 yard backstroke; Bob Horn—100 yard freestyle; "Art" Moffet—200 yard freestyle; Brian Wickes, Bill Carman, and Bob Shultz—120 yard medley relay team; Alan Fleming; Brian Wickes, Sam Brandt and Bob Horn—160 yard freestyle relay team; and Jack Hasson—a diver.

Most of the boys on this year's squad are underclassmen and have gained valuable experience which should be felt by future opponents of the "Colls" Mermen.

The 1947 track season brought an amazing array of stars to the "cinderpaths of Shields Field." The team met with moderate success as a group, but its individual stars shone brilliantly all season long.

Collingswood received national acclaim by placing John Murphy, of the class of 1947, on "Look's" fifth annual All-American High School Track Team as the outstanding high school javelin thrower in the nation. Murphy, who has never fallen below the 160' mark in his entire career, shone brilliantly last year. He clinched the All-American title by tossing the spear 197 feet $\frac{1}{4}$ inch in the University of Pennsylvania Invitation Meet.

The team defeated Haddonfield, Audubon, Camden County Vocational School, and Woodrow Wilson. They ran second against Palmyra and Bordentown Military Institute, Haddon Heights and Bridgeton, and finished a brilliant second in the George School Invitation Meet.

Besides Murphy, high point men for the "Colls" were "Bud" Dyson—javelin and discus thrower; "Mac" McQuestion—fleet dash man; and John Lingo—high stepping hurdler.

The prospect for 1948 is bright, with 13 lettermen returning from last year's squad. Outstanding prospects for 1948 are: "Mike" Moffa—giant weight man; Bruce Middleton, "Phil" Holloway, and John Dioszegi—high stepping hurdlers; "Speedy" McCord and "Joe" Deering—fleet dash men; George Henderson—high soaring pole vaulter and high jumper; and "Eddie" Vekony—durable half miler. All pre-season signs point to an "inside track" to victory for the Collingswood "Thinclads."

All classes participate in the parade of school life. The seniors, being the oldest and wisest, are at the head of the parade. Individual pictures of seniors are used in this next section; and homeroom pictures of juniors and sophomores follow. Included with the pictures of each class are also pictures of class officers, sponsors, and those elected to the class "Who's Who."

LEAD THE MARCH

The Class of 1948 has had a happy and successful three years in Collingswood High. As leaders this year of the parade of classes, the seniors have flown a banner brilliant with success.

Miss Esther Snoke competently advises the senior president, Warren Mulle; vice-president, Michael Moffa; secretary, Janet Morris; and treasurer, Dodd Farnath. These officers plan activities for the class. These same officers, with two people from each senior homeroom, are members of the Board of Control. This group meets every two weeks to plan class activities. The members are Sue Bond, Edward Bowman, Gilbert Busch, Robert Cochran, John Doughty, Elizabeth Ruth Farnath, Dodd Farnath, Flora Mae Ferner, Ruth Gilbert, Thomas Glann, Gerald Eichelberger, Rodman Johnson, Gloria Mahoney, Michael Moffa, Janet Morris, Warren Mulle, Barbara Rapp, Adelaide Stone, Arnold Weber, and Thomas Williams.

This year, class activities have included three dances, one of which was the Christmas formal; the senior play, "Life of the Party"; the yearly Christmas Eve Caroling Party; the Senior "Prom"; and the traditional Washington trip. All were highly successful.

"The Knight" staff conducted a Senior Who's Who by secret ballot last fall. The Seniors elected their classmates to the following positions: best looking, Gloria Mahoney and Richard Coigne; "cutest" couple, Janet Morris and Arnold Weber; best natured, Janice Fulton and James Litzinger; most talented, Rema Reyes and Edward Palmer; typical class leaders, Adelaide Stone and Thomas Williams; most likely to succeed, Katherine White and Warren Mulle; class clowns, Barbara Rapp and Gilbert Busch; best dancers, Irene Ford and Dominick Vignola; most scholarly, Helen Puro and Karl Dorshu; and most popular, Ruth Gilbert and Dominick Vignola.

The Class of 1948 will never forget its stay in Collingswood High. No matter what goal the graduates are striving to attain, the best wishes of everyone go with them.

dent; G. Mahoney, B. R. Farnath. SECOND ROW, STANDING, B. Rapp, R. Cochran, T. Glann, G. Busch, J. Doughty, A. Weber, R. Johnson, A. Stone.

MISS ANNA A. LATIMER

IN MEMORIAM

On Tuesday, January 6, 1948, Collingswood High School learned of the death of a faculty member, Miss Anna A. Latimer.

Miss Latimer had taught mathematics in Collingswood High School for twenty years, and was planning to retire at the end of this year.

Miss Latimer's devotion to duty, her high ideals, her interest in people, her excellence as a teacher, her smile, and her friendly greeting will always be sincerely remembered by the faculty and students of Collingswood High School.

THE JUNIORS STAND AND WAIT

The juniors, who will lead the parade of classes next year, have just finished a year sparkling with events. They have presented two informal dances, one in October and another in January; they sponsored the selling of the school jewelry last fall; they elected competent class officers; they voted for their "Who's Who"; they had fun and success.

Mr. Charles McCaslin capably advises the junior class, whose officers are president, Theodore Narleski; vice president, Robert Purbeck; secretary, Jane Bleming; corresponding secretary, Marjorie Heacock; and treasurer, Olive Onofri. A Board of Control consisting of two members from each home-room meets frequently to plan and discuss class activities with their officers.

In a secret "Who's Who" ballot conducted by "The Knight", the juniors elected their classmates to the following positions: easiest to look at, Jane Bleming and Richard Preston; best athletes, Olive Onofri and Gordon Leslie; class comedians, Nan Keenan and Walter Baker; typical juniors, Sonja Barth and Sherwood Joy; and best dancers, Barbara Ferguson and Anthony Tate.

Best wishes for a happy and successful senior year from the class of 1948!

The Class of 1950 anxiously awaits the chance to lead the parade of classes. Although the sophomores bring up the rear of the parade, their activities have kept them busy throughout the year. They have sponsored two informal dances, "A Winter Wonderland" in December and a March dance. During May the yearly trip to the Philadelphia Zoo was taken.

Miss Marion Merwin directs the sophomore class, whose officers are Edwin Smith, president; Jean Campbell, vice-president; Elynor Homan, secretary; and Doris Gurskey, treasurer. Besides these class officers the sophomores have a Board of Control which meets often to plan and discuss class activities.

The Sophomore Who's Who was conducted by "The Knight" last fall. The results are as follows: best looking sophomores are Doris Shubert and Donald DeMartin; best athletes are Barbara Seybold and Lawrence Schuman; class clowns are Jean Sykes and Gerry Groeber; most likely to succeed are Jean Campbell and Robert Brewin; and most popular are Elynor Homan and Edwin Smith.

The Class of 1948 wishes the class of 1950 the best of luck and success at Collingswood High.
